

Parent's Meeting Agenda

- Distribute this Agenda
- Introductions (coach, players, parents)
- Coach's experience
- Basketball Coaching philosophy
- Coach's expectations for team and parents
- Expectations for players (including how expectations will be monitored)
- Team Goals
- The importance of treating people with respect (coaches, players, and referees)
- How will the coach communicate with the players and parents outside of games and practices
- Practice and game schedule and location information
- How complaints by players or parents should be handled
- What are the consequences for a player being late to or missing practices or games? Parents and players should notify the coach if the player will be late to or will miss practices or games.
- How playing time will be decided and whether the coach will or will not discuss complaints about playing time.
- The role of parents is to support the team
- Discuss opportunities for parent/coach conferences
- Discussion of parent's and player's expectations
- Financial requirements
- Hand out parents letter which reiterates the points above and includes or provides access to a team calendar and provides coach's contact information
- Hand out usernames and passwords for accessing the team web site.
- Collect contact information for players and parents